About Us

Alpha Lambda Zeta (ALZ) Fraternity, Inc., a LGBT Greek-Lettered Organization, is a national non-collegiate service fraternity for pre-professional professional masculine-identified lesbians who seek to promote positive images of the LGBT community through service to the community and political activism. The organization was founded to provide mentorship, personal growth, and leadership.

Membership in Alpha Lambda Zeta is not exclusive to women of a particular race or age. The fraternity was founded in 2006 in Houston, Texas and Atlanta, Georgia.

Our Principles

Through our mission and the dedication we have to each other, we positively impact our community while maintaining a fraternal bond that is fostered by understanding, acceptance, and support.

Alpha Lambda Zeta Fraternity, Inc has five principles:

Fraternal Sisterhood - bond with and respect each other.

Community Volunteerism - make a positive impact.

Political Activism - promote civil and equal rights.

Erudition - lifetime learning and understanding the ever-changing world.

Professionalism - promoting positive perceptions of aggressive women.
